Management of HCV and HBV in Egyptian children and high risk population groups

Manal El-Sayed, MD
Professor of Pediatrics
Ain Shams University, Cairo, Egypt
Tuesday. October 29, 2013
2:00-3:00 pm
Emory University
Health Sciences Research Building, 1st Floor Auditorium

For additional information, please contact:
hope.c.richardson@emory.edu or call 404-727-1414
Laboratory of Biochemical Pharmacology – Emory/VA

Dr. El-Sayed is currently working with WHO, CDC Atlanta, Pasteur Institute in France and Egyptian Health Ministry to develop an implementation plan for prevention and control of viral hepatitis in Egypt. She is an active member of the Egyptian National Committee for Control of Viral Hepatitis.