Due Date: Thursday, May 1, 2014, 4:00 P.M. Pacific time

Eligibility: Investigators who are members of any U.S. Center for AIDS Research and international collaborators of CFAR investigators are invited to submit abstracts for the CHRIS meeting.

Topics: Preferred topics include results generated from CFAR-supported international research.

Header components
- Title: Use a concise title that indicates the content of the abstract. Italicize specific names of microorganisms.
- Authors: Authors’ names should be typed in upper- and lowercase letters (please do not use all capital letters). Use first name and last name. Indicate the presenting author and include his or her e-mail address and business phone. There is a limit of 10 authors per abstract.
- Affiliations: If domestic, each author should be listed by institution, city, state, and country. If international, each author should be listed by institution, city, and country. Do not include department, division, laboratory, or acknowledgements.
- Funding source: List funding source(s) and grant number(s). All grants funded by the UC San Diego Center for AIDS Research (CFAR) share the same number: P30 AI036214.

Abstract components: Abstracts are limited to 2,500 characters, including spaces. Abstracts should emphasize international research related to HIV. Please bold the following four section headings within the text of your abstract submission.
- Background: a concise statement of the issue under investigation or a hypothesis;
- Methods: the experimental methods used (including the statistical analyses employed);
- Results: specific findings (promises such as “to be completed” or “to be presented” are not acceptable); and
- Conclusions: a summary of findings that are supported by your results. (Statistical analyses used to support the conclusions, where appropriate, should be included; concluding statements such as “the results will be discussed” are not acceptable.) Please do not include literature references or copyright or trademark symbols.

Submission: E-mail completed abstracts in MS Word or PDF to cfar@ucsd.edu by 4:00 P.M. Thursday, May 1, 2014. Results will be announced by Monday, June 2, and the CHRIS meeting is scheduled on Wednesday, October 1.
