GRANT WRITING TUTORIAL SESSIONS
FOR THE NIH K CAREER DEVELOPMENT AWARD

Sign up for a free, no credit, 2-session NIH Grant Writing Tutorial.

Space is limited and first priority will be to applicants submitting new proposals for the November 12, 2014 deadline. Applicants preparing a resubmission application are welcome as well, as space permits.

Eligibility: Postdoc, Instructor, Assistant Professor (or equivalent).

Focus: This tutorial will address the following K Award categories: K01, K07, K08, K22, K23, K25, K99/00. Applicants who are preparing VA CDA or other career development awards are also welcome to attend.

Classes will include didactic presentation, discussion, and Q & A. Dr. Gross may also provide an individual read and review of your proposal, time permitting.

Class Schedule (Wednesdays, 9:00-12:00; Room TBA):
- Meeting 1: July 30, 2014
- Meeting 2: August 20, 2014

To register for this tutorial: Email the following information ASAP to Dr. Janet Gross:

- Biographical sketch following the specific instructions for K series Career Development Awards -- see special K instructions in the NIH Application Guidelines, section 7.
- Title of project (81 characters max.)
- Current position at Emory – must include your official title, lab, mentor, year postdoc began, or year your current rank began
- Award category (e.g., K01) and NIH Institute (e.g., NCI)

You will receive an email confirmation of your participation in the tutorial after your sign-up materials are reviewed. Those who register after a tutorial is filled will be placed on a waiting list.
