AMIS Analysis Topics Already Published or Underway:

The following topics have been already been published or have been assigned to researchers and are not available for this contest. Contact the AMIS study team (amis@emory.edu) for detailed descriptions of these analyses or to verify availability of a proposed topic.

- Knowledge of acute HIV infection (published in OFID, February 2015)
- National summary of primary behavioral findings (AMIS-2013 published in JMIR, April 2015; AMIS-2014 submitted for publication)
- Correlates of HIV testing and sexual behaviors of HIV-uninfected MSM 15 to 24 years of age
- Age of initiation of same-sex sexual behavior
- Comparison of HIV testing and sexual behavior among urban and rural MSM
- Correlates of HIV testing and sexual behaviors of Hispanic/Latino MSM
- Comparisons of sexual behaviors of MSM and MSMW
- Perceptions of stigma relative to LGBTQ-inclusive civil rights legislation/policy
- Awareness, willingness and use of pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP)
- Correlates of intentional seroadaptive behaviors
- Awareness and correlates of awareness of CDC campaigns
- Venue of partner meeting and sexual risk correlates

For more information, please contact the AMIS study team:

Email: amis@emory.edu
Phone: 404-712-8738
Address: PRISM Health
Emory University Rollins School of Public Health
Fourth Floor
1518 Clifton Road NE
Atlanta, Georgia 30322